2019 Yale-Myers Forest Summer Seminar Series

June 12th  Wolf Trees: History, ecology, conservation
Michael Gaige

June 26th  Bees in the Trees: Pollinators and the early spring flowering forest canopy
Kass Urban-Mead

July 10th  Frozen Frogs in Hot Water: Can evolutionary adaptation counteract climate change?
A. Andis

July 24th  Untangling the Red Maple Paradox: How does red maple regenerate so successfully in Connecticut’s forests?
Laura Ostrowsky

All seminars begin at 7pm. Join us for refreshments before at 6:30pm.
Seminars are held at the Yale-Myers Forest Campus, 150 Center Pike Road, Eastford, CT.